

Hunting Needs You!

A clarion call from Sir Johnny Scott Bt, MFH

Labour revealed last week that in its first term, it would abolish any remaining vestiges of natural hunting, by banning trail and drag hunting.

And what are we actually doing about that existential threat to our whole way of life?

Please write a polite personal email, incorporating at least 2 or 3 points from the bullet list below, to keir.starmer.mp@parliament.uk

Please find and copy your local MP

<https://members.parliament.uk/members/commons>

and also copy the opposition candidates.

Please ensure that you include your name and full address.

Finally, please forward a copy to Anna at hello@huntingkind.com so that we can target gaps in constituencies and follow up as necessary.

A good number of personal letters (4 from each registered hunt would produce 1,000 emails) is the target.

Impersonal autogenerated e-lobby emails require no effort and consequently have little effect.

“Labour is as much in the thrall of powerful animal rights lobbyists, as it was in 1996 and once again, we are going to be victims of the politics of envy and spite. If you care about saving what is left of our cultural heritage for our children and our children's children, I urge you to write to Sir Keir Starmer and your local MP. It won't take long and it will have an effect. Don't sit about and do nothing. There has been too much vacillation for FAR too long. Our way of life is in the balance.”

Labour banning trail and drag hunting:

- Is wilful destruction of our cultural heritage.
- Will negatively affect rural community cohesion.
- Discriminates against a minority group with a protected belief.
- Is contrary to supporting diversity.
- Is seen as an attack on the countryside.
- Is without doubt a 'vote loser' and certainly NOT a 'vote winner'.
- Will widen the gap of urban and rural integration.
- Is damaging to the delicate fabric of rural livelihoods & jobs.
- Has absolutely nothing to do with animal welfare.
- Is a continuation of illiberal and prejudiced class warfare.
- Demonstrates fundamental lack of understanding of rural life & its values.
- Is a denial of basic liberties and freedoms within our democracy.
- Puts 200 election winning rural seats further beyond reach.
